

Session 1.6 – Assessment of the mangled hand: Principles for Functional Reconstruction

Objectives:

- Revision - as above for session 1.1
- Demonstrates in-depth understanding of the anatomy of the hand wrist and forearm
- Familiar with specific terminology commonly used in upper limb anatomy
- Understands relevant local anatomy, including knowledge of the cutaneous nerves in the area of the skin incision for common approaches
- Possesses knowledge and demonstrates expertise in the anatomical description and discussion of hand conditions and injuries

Primary Resources:

1. Acland Anatomy: Upper limb (1:53:46) <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=q-JoMatFzAI>
2. Upper extremity anatomy video (1:20:16) <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=34JlVt6AyhE>

<https://s.surveypplanet.com/t28drbyz>